

THE BIG CHIEFS HOLD POW-WOW

SIOUX INDIANS CALL ON ROOSEVELT AT BISMARCK AND ASSURE GOOD WILL.

THE MOST ENJOYABLE DAY

Of the Trip Spent Among Friends of the Wild West—Speech at Fargo on the Philippines.

Bismarck, N. D., April 7—Standing in the private office of Governor White at the state capitol this afternoon, President Roosevelt received the assurance of friendship and support of the great Sioux Indian tribe and similar assurances from the chiefs of the Mandan and Gros Ventres. Twenty of the most distinguished chieftains had come from their agencies to see "the Great Father," and assure him of their support and good will.

There were many famous Indians in the assemblage. John Grass, orator and chief justice of the Sioux, made the presentation of the tribe's good will, in the translation of an address which had been agreed upon in council of the chiefs. At the same time Grass presented the president with a peace pipe of beautifully carved pipestone in token of the good will and friendship of the Indians. Among the chiefs present were Red Tomahawk, the Indian who killed Sitting Bull at the time of the uprising in the early 90's; Red Fish, one of the hereditary leaders of the Sioux; Black Bull, Standing Bear, Cross Ghost, Cross Bear and other Sioux chiefs.

"We have been treated well by the good 'Great Father,'" said Grass, and we hope he will again be the great father when his time is over."

Watts, chief of the Mandan Indians, also presented written assurances of the good will of his people.

"Tell him," said the president, through the interpreter, "that I am glad to see him. The Mandan Indians have always done well." Then the wrinkled old chieftains grasped the president's hand and solemnly grunted their approval.

The president's train reached the capitol city on time and the president and party were at once taken through the lavishly decorated streets to the state capitol. A brief reception was held in the governor's private office. Afterwards he delivered a brief address from the balcony of the capitol to a crowd of several thousand people. He expressed satisfaction at seeing so many of the friends of his western days, paid a special compliment to veterans of the civil and Philippine wars, who were present. He laid stress upon personal responsibility and personal effort as essentials in all well doing and public life. Upon the conclusion of his address the president was again called upon to meet a number of old friends and after five minutes' interview re-entered his carriage and was driven to the depot, passing en route the scene of the barbecue, where two oxen and a number of sheep were being roasted for the attending crowds. At the depot the president was given another ovation and as far as the train could be seen bowed his farewell to the crowd and waved his old slouch hat.

The president stopped long enough at the barbecue to receive a huge sandwich of roast beef and rye bread, which he ate with a genuine relish.

AMONG COWBOY FRIENDS.

Tuesday Was Most Enjoyable Day of President's Trip.

Mandan, N. D., April 7—President Roosevelt has been travelling through a familiar country today and received hearty greetings wherever his train stopped. At many places he recognized old friends and from his conversation it is evident that this has been one of the most enjoyable days of his trip. At Fargo, Jamestown and Bismarck he made stops from half an hour to an hour and discussed the conditions in the Philippines, tariff and general prosperity. The country is enjoying. Shows were also made at Casselton, Tower, Valley City, the home of Gov. White; Dawson, Dickinson and Medora.

At Bismarck the president was introduced to a number of Indian chiefs, some of whom had fought against Custer. He had traded with two of these Indians 18 or 20 years ago and instantly recognized them. The chief presented an address and a plug of tobacco to the president, who had a few words of greeting and thanks for each man. The most interesting ceremony of the day occurred at Medora, where the president at one time owned a ranch and which was his post office address sixteen years ago, when he was sheriff of Billings county, Medora, and Bismarck. The ranch from the surrounding country had come into town and there gave the president a truly western reception. Joe Ferris, who was the president's old friend, and his brother, S. M. Ferris, met the president at Bismarck and rode with him to Medora.

TALK OF PHILIPPINES.

Text of the President's Address at Fargo.

Fargo, N. D., April 7—At this point President Roosevelt delivered the principal address of the day his subject being the Philippines and the Army. Mr. Fallon, Chittenden, of the Senate, whose sons in the Civil war added such a brilliant page to the honor roll of the Republic, likewise bore a full share of the struggle of which the war with Spain was the beginning; a struggle which indeed when compared with the gigantic death struggle which for four years stamped to and fro across the Southern States in the Civil war, but a struggle fraught with consequences to the nation, and indeed to the world, out of all proportion to the smallness of the effort upon our part.

Three and a half years ago President McKinley spoke in the adjoining state of Minnesota on the occasion of the return of the Thirteenth Minnesota volunteers from the Philippine Islands, where they had served with your own gallant sons of the North Dakota regiment. After heartily thanking the returned soldiers for their valor and patriotism, and their contemptuous refusal to be taunted or misled by the outcry raised at home by the men of little faith who wished us to abandon the islands, he spoke of the islands themselves, as follows:

"That Congress will provide for them a government which will bring them blessings, which will promote their material interests as well as advance their people in the path of civilization and intelligence, I confidently believe. They will not be governed as vassals or serfs or slaves. They will be given a government of liberty, regulated by law, honestly administered without oppressing exactions, taxation without tyranny, justice without bribe, education without distinction of social condition, freedom of religious worship, and protection to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

What he said then lay in the realm of promise. Now it lies in the realm of positive performance.

It is a good thing to look back upon what has been said and compare it with the record of what has actually been done. If promises are violated, it is plighted, word is not kept, then those who have failed in their duty should be held up to reprobation. If, on the other hand, the promises have been substantially made good; if the achievement has kept pace and more than kept pace with the prophecy, then they who made the one and are responsible for the other are entitled of just rights to claim the credit which attaches to those who serve the nation well. This credit I claim for the men who have managed so admirably the military and the civil affairs of the Philippine Islands, and for those other men who have so healthily backed up the former, and without whom old and support not one thing could have been accomplished.

When President McKinley spoke, the first duty was the restoration of order; and to this end the use of the army of the United States—an army composed of regulars and volunteers alike—was necessary. To put down the insurrection and restore peace to the islands was a duty not only to ourselves but to the Islanders. We could not have abandoned the conflict without shrinking from this duty, without proving ourselves recreants to the memory of our forefathers. Moreover, if we had abandoned it we would have inflicted upon the Filipinos the most cruel wrong and would have doomed them to a bloody jungle of anarchy and tyranny. It seems strange, looking backward, that any of our people should have failed to recognize a duty so obvious; but there was such failure, and the government at home, the civil authorities in the Philippines, and above all our gallant army, had to do their work amid a storm of detraction. The army in especial was attacked in a way which did good, for in the end it aroused the hearty resentment of the great body of the American people, not against the army, but against the administration's trade. The circumstances of the war made it one of peculiar difficulty, and our soldiers were exposed to peculiar wrongs from their foes. They fought in dense tropical jungles against enemies who were very treacherous and very cruel, not only toward our own men, but toward the great number of friendly natives, the most peaceable and most civilized among whom eagerly welcomed our rule. Under such circumstances, among a hundred thousand hot-blooded and powerful young men serving in small detachments on the other side of the globe, it was impossible that occasional instances of wrong doing should not occur. The fact that they occurred in retaliation for well nigh intolerable provocation can not for one moment be admitted in the way of excuse or justification. All good Americans regret and deplore them, and the war department has taken every step in its power to punish the offenders and to prevent or minimize the chance of repetition of the offense. But these offenses were the exception and not the rule. As a whole our troops showed not only signal courage and fidelity, but great humanity and the most sincere desire to promote the welfare and happiness of the Islanders. In a series of exceedingly harassing and difficult campaigns they completed an overthrow of the enemy, including them finally to a condition of mere brigandage, and wherever they conquered only to make way for the rule of the civil government, for the introduction of law, and of liberty under the law. When, by fast July, the last vestige of organized insurrection had disappeared, peace and amnesty were proclaimed.

As rapidly as the military rule was extended over the islands by the defeat of the insurgents, just so rapidly was it replaced by the civil government. At the present time the civil government is supreme and the army in the Philippines has been reduced until it is sufficient merely to provide against the recurrence of trouble. In Governor Taft and his associates we sent to the Philippines as upright as conscientious, and as able a group of administrators ever any country has been blessed with. With them and under them we have associated the best men among the Filipinos, so that the great majority of the officials, including many of the highest rank, are themselves Americans. The administration is incorruptly honest, just and is jealousy safeguarded by the president, a truly western reception. Joe Ferris, who was the president's old friend, and his brother, S. M. Ferris, met the president at Bismarck and rode with him to Medora.

This message embodied precisely and exactly the avowed policy upon which the American government has acted in the Philippines. What the patriot Rizal said with such force in speaking of the insurrection before we came to the islands, applies with tenfold greater force to those who foolishly or wickedly opposed the mild and benevolent government we have instituted in the islands. The judgment of the martyred public servant, Rizal whose birthday the Philippine people celebrate, and whom they worship as their hero and ideal, sets forth the duty of American sovereignty: a duty from which the American people will never shrink.

Governor Roosevelt he characterized, as a man of very limited experience in administration of state affairs and accused him of forcing the special franchise tax law upon the legislature as a "political expedient."

The court made no comment upon Hill's attacks upon the former governor.

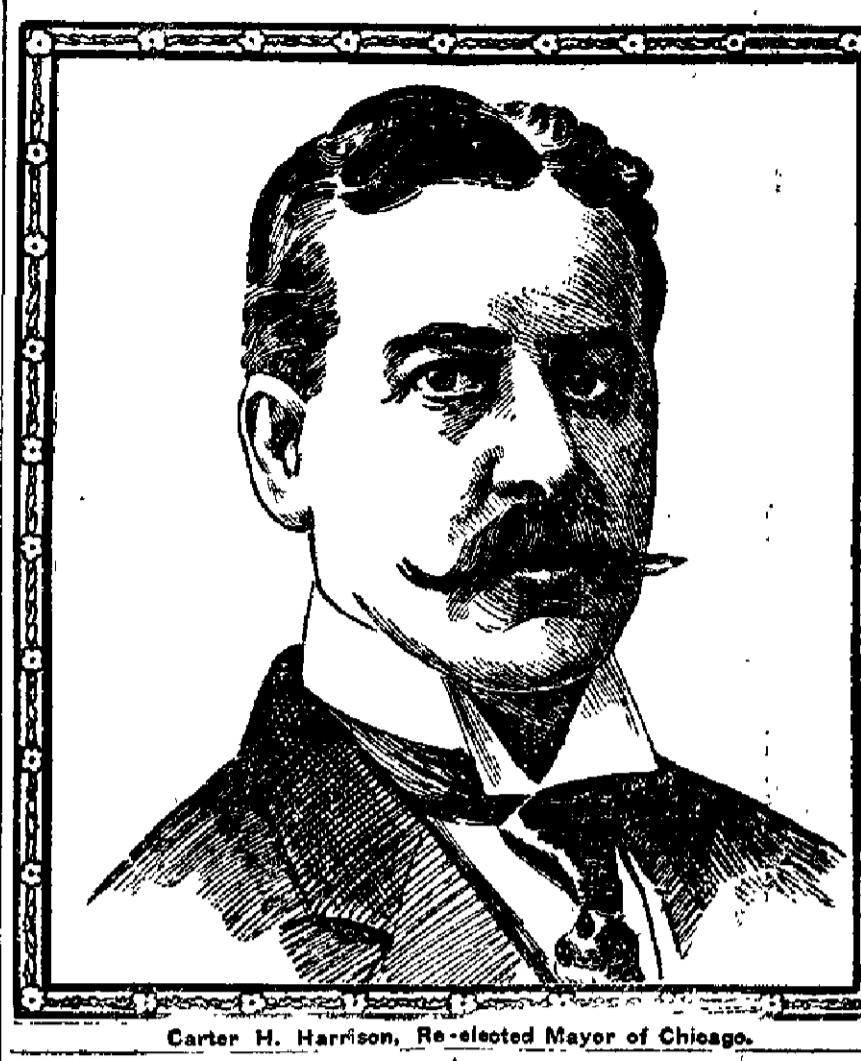

Governor Cuneen said:

"Governor Roosevelt needs no defense for my honor. If he did nothing else, he can make the legislative steps which will place these enormous values in such relation to the tax law, that they will bear their share with owners of cottages, business enterprises and other property now subject to taxation he would have deserved the promotion with which he has been rewarded."

Stewart Gave Harrison the Hardest
Race of His Life—Elections In Illinois.

Chicago, April 7—Carter H. Harrison was elected mayor of Chicago today for the fourth time.

Harrison's majority over Stewart is 6,948. The total vote was Harrison, democrat, 146,323; Stewart, republican, 138,378; Crulice, independent, labor, 9,099; Breckin, socialist, 11,212; Haines, prohibition, 2,848.

In the last mayoralty election the total vote was, Harrison, democrat, 156,156; Hickey, republican, 158,413; St. John, prohibition, 3,328; Collins, socialist, 6,284. Early returns were in favor of Stewart and at one time he was 3,000 ahead, but later returns cut down the plurality steadily and the republican leaders in private consultation admitted Stewart's defeat by about 6,000.

In the first precinct of the twenty-first ward, in which both Harrison and Stewart reside, the vote was Harrison, 41; Stewart, 101. In the last mayoralty election the vote was Harrison 82; Stewart 54.

The chief issue was the traction question, both candidates favoring ultimate municipal ownership of the street railways. Stewart advocated immediate improvement of the conditions, making the best terms possible with companies.

The new city council will be 35 republicans, 33 democrats, one independent democratic.

The result in one ward is still in doubt. The old council was 33 republicans, 30 democrats, one independent.

The republicans elected John F. Simuksi city attorney by 8,700 plurality and Fred C. Bender city clerk by 6,700. The democrats elected Ernest Hummel city treasurer by 21,700.

King, Alderman, was elected by 11,212.

Chairman and Secretary Forgot to Look After Filing His Nomination Papers.

HE MAY GET ON YET.

Mr. Young Not Disposed to Take Any Advantage.

Robert L. Hunt who has been making quite an active campaign as democratic alderman in the second ward against F. M. Young, the republican, suddenly discovered that he was not a candidate.

Mr. Hunt was in Clinton on business and he received a telephone message Tuesday from Decatur telling him that his nomination papers had not been filed in time with the city clerk.

Monday was the last day for filing the papers. Mr. Hunt was selected at the primary, and the city clerk was awaiting the chairman and secretary of the primary to file with the city clerk a certificate of nomination. E. E. Gibson was the chairman and Fred Wilson the secretary of the primary and they did not file the papers until Tuesday, a day too late.

Not Worrying.

Mr. Hunt said when he arrived home Tuesday afternoon

"I did not think it was for me to attend to the matter. I supposed of course that the chairman and secretary of the primary would look after the detail as it was their duty. I do not worry very much about it if I do not get in the first place in office it is not worth very much trouble."

The matter was submitted to C. C. Walters, the city attorney. Mr. Walters said he would look up the law. Tuesday evening Mr. Walters said that he had not been able to find a supreme court decision on such a question but that the statute provides that where there is an objection to a nomination the matter may be referred to the mayor, the city clerk and one alderman, who must be chosen by lot. As it happens Alderman Young several weeks ago was selected to serve on the committee.

Young Willing.

Mr. Walters said that he thought it might be possible for an objection to be filed to Mr. Hunt's nomination papers and that would bring the matter before the committee.

Alderman Young said that he had no disposition to do anything which would prevent Mr. Hunt making the race if he desired.

Mayor Shilling said Tuesday night he would do whatever was proper when the city attorney reported the law to him. Mr. Shilling said he did not know yet what would be lawful to do.

Mr. Hunt has for some days past had his cards out and exhibited pictures of himself on his cards.

Handsome New Store.

The Brodbeck confectionery store at 226 North Main street has been entirely refitted and is as handsomely furnished store as will be found in the city. The new show cases are made of cherry with mahogany finish and are built on granite bases. The wall fixtures are of the same wood with a place of heavy plate glass mirrors making a pretty effect with the cut glass candy jars arranged on the shelves.

In the front of the store is a handsome marble and mahogany soda water fountain and the back part of the room fitted as an ice cream parlor. The room is carpeted and furnished with ten tables each seating four persons.

The fixtures were all made by the Combination Fountain Company of Decatur.

The store has a dignified appearance and with the handsome new fixtures and dairy candies exhibited it is a place well worth visiting.

The store is now open to the public for inspection and the management invites the people to visit the place and see the improvements.

Ice Cream Factory Opens.

The Decatur Ice Cream Company plant opened for business yesterday. W. M. Stewart, the manager, has been in the city for the past two months fitting the plant. The firm will manufacture all kinds of ice cream for wholesale business and for the general trade.

They played for three weeks and business got worse and worse until the company got stranded in some little town.
